DATE : 5th May, 2006.

P.C.

Learned counsel for the Respondents on taking instructions from the representative of the Respondent by name Mr. Shama Bhatia states that he is ready to handover the keys of 12 tenaments to the respective persons. Learned counsel for the Petitioners is ready to accept those keys and also further states that whatever complaints are filed in the court of Metropolitan Magistrate at Borivali will be withdrawn. He makes this statement after taking instructions from Shankar Pawar, Complainant – present in court. Learned counsel for the respondents further states that all the tenaments the possession of which are being offered are vacant. Learned counsel for the petitioners also states that on getting possession of these tenaments, four transit accommodation which are in possession of the persons named in the consent terms would be handed over to the Respondents. This handing over of the possession of the tenaments and of transit accommodation can be done on 19th May, 2006 between 11 a.m., to 2.00 p.m., at the site. On the same day the complaint shall also be withdrawn. In view of this the contempt petition stands disposed of.
